Bible study for women.*

Coffee Break & Story Hour

JOIN US!
every Wednesday morning
9:15am

WHAT IS COFFEE BREAK?

Coffee Break is an interfaith Bible study for women. It is a time for meeting new people, talking, listening, and finding out what the Bible has to say to you. No previous Bible knowledge is expected.

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT?

Expect to make new friends, share a cup of coffee, laugh, cry, and discover new insights from the Bible. The setting is casual and no one will call on you—you participate as you feel comfortable! Previous Bible knowledge is not expected.

WHERE DO WE MEET?

We meet at the Burlington Christian Reformed Church, located at 3422 New St. in Burlington — between Guelph & Walkers Lines. Use the south-west entrance.

Burlington CRC is an intergenerational family of believers that is focused on God, immersed in the community and connected to one another in faith.

WHEN DO WE MEET?

We will meet each Wednesday morning beginning on September 14. Our morning begins at 9:15am with coffee and fellowship and time to bring your children to Story Hour and/or the nursery. The program begins around 9:30am and ends 11am.

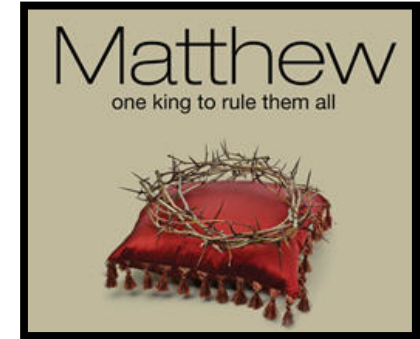

CHILDCARE (Story Hour, Little Lambs and Nursery)

Story Hour is an exciting time of Bible stories, crafts, snacks, songs, and activities for children ages 3-5 years old.

Little Lambs is for active two year olds to enjoy supervised play.

Nursery for babies under two years old is also provided.

Dedicated Christian women provide loving care while teaching truths from the Bible. There is no charge for this program and new children are always welcome.

OUR GOD REIGNS!

Revelations 9:6b is the theme for the 2011/12 Coffee Break season. We will be studying the gospel of Matthew.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO YOUR FRIENDSHIP!

Coffee, tea & refreshments and a warm welcome are always waiting for you.
